

NATIONAL HUMANITIES CENTER

HUMANITIES IN CLASS

DIGITAL LIBRARY

ABOUT THE DIGITAL LIBRARY

The Humanities in Class Digital Library is an Open Education Resources (OER) platform, providing you with direct access to a wide variety of humanities resources in one central location. The platform is open to K-12 and collegiate-level users including scholars, schools, districts, and informal educators.

MEMBERSHIP IS FREE

Become a member and receive:

- ✓ Priority seating for the Humanities in Class live webinar series.
- ✓ Discounts on Humanities in Class online courses.
- ✓ Early notifications about professional opportunities.

JOIN OUR COMMUNITY

JOIN our professional community and start enjoying the benefits of the Humanities in Class Digital Library.

Sign Up for Your Library Card:
education.nationalhumanitiescenter.org

EXPLORE. DESIGN. INNOVATE.

The Digital Library offers many useful features to help you more easily discover, remix, and share humanities content:

Search and discover exceptional humanities education content including curated collections on “Teaching About Race, Place, and Social Justice” and “Voting and Why It Matters.”

Curate and save resources from trusted content providers in all humanities fields to build an interdisciplinary curriculum collection to meet your instructional goals.

Create and publish a lesson or activity for your own classroom in one central workspace.

Collaborate and communicate with like-minded scholars, educators, and experts from across the globe through network hubs.

The National Humanities Center is one of the world's leading institutes for advanced study and the only independent institution of its kind dedicated exclusively to the humanities. For over four decades, the Center has encouraged excellence in scholarship and teaching while constantly affirming the vital importance of the humanities in American life.