

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT PROGRAMS

Led by expert facilitators, our professional development programs include thematic and focused areas of study that can be readily adapted for any subject matter, offered in a variety of our training models. All programs support educators with access to a range of classroom-ready content, sound teaching pedagogy and instructional strategies — all needed to teach about the Holocaust in a comprehensive, responsible, and meaningful way.

PROGRAM SCHEDULE

March 2nd, 7PM EST: Foundations of Holocaust Education

Through our core professional development program, educators will enhance their knowledge and capacity to teach about the Holocaust, including the history of antisemitism, and how this historical event continues to influence the world today. This session will provide foundational concepts for the series, and will include a focus on teaching about the Holocaust in New York.

March 9th, 7PM EST: Analyzing Propaganda and Teaching Media Literacy: The Holocaust as a Case Study

Explore the events of the Holocaust through the lens of the media, by examining propaganda deployed by the Nazis to discriminate against Jews and other minorities. Educators will gain the tools to facilitate classroom discussions on the role and impact of Nazi propaganda during the Holocaust, and support their students to critically analyze media in today's world.

April 6th, 7PM EST: Spotlight on Contemporary Antisemitism

Increase students' awareness that antisemitism did not end after the Holocaust and consider connections between the persistence of antisemitism in its contemporary forms and this historical event. Educators will also examine ways to help students explore the responsibility of all members of society to respond to and prevent antisemitism and all forms of hate.
